prescribed treatment plan or are not recommended and approved by a Willamette Dental Group, P.C. dentist. • Services and related exams or consultations to the extent they are not necessary for the diagnosis, care, or treatment of the condition involved.

• Services by any person other than a licensed dentist, denturist, hygienist, or dental assistant.

• Services for the diagnosis or treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders, unless listed as covered in the contract.

• Services for the treatment of an injury or disease that is covered under workers' compensation or that are the employer's responsibility.

• Services for treatment of injuries sustained while practicing for or competing in a professional athletic contest.

Services for treatment of intentionally self-inflicted injuries.
Services for which coverage is available under any federal, state, or other governmental program, unless required by law.

• Services not listed as covered in the contract.

• Services where there is no evidence of pathology, dysfunction, or disease other than covered preventive services.

LIMITATIONS

- If alternative services can be used to treat a condition, the service recommended by the Willamette Dental Group, P.C. dentist is covered.
- Services listed in the contract, which are provided to correct congenital or developmental malformations which impair functions of the teeth and supporting structures will be covered for dependent children if dental necessity has been established.
- The retreatment of root canal therapy performed by a Willamette Dental Group dentist will be covered as part of the initial treatment for the first 24 months. The retreatment of root canal therapy performed by a non-participating provider will be subject to the applicable copays.
- General anesthesia is covered with the copays specified in the contract, if: performed in a dental office, provided in conjunction with a covered service, and dentally necessary because the enrollee is under the age of 7, developmentally disabled, or physically handicapped.
- The services provided by a dentist in a hospital setting must meet the requirements in the contract to be covered.
